PRESIDENT'S FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE ADVISORY BOARD

May 23, 1984

Dear Bill:

Sending you thank you notes for meeting with the Board during our full plenary sessions is becoming an enjoyable routine. You never fail to impart information and ideas that are very important in our efforts to serve the President. We were able to review a number of important issues with you during our May meeting, and your candor and insight, as always, were greatly appreciated.

I'm also pleased that you were able to join us at our reception in the Indian Treaty Room. It gave us a chance to show you that PFIAB can be as hospitable as it is persistent during our more formal meetings.

I look forward to seeing you soon.

Sincerely,

Anne L. Armstrong
Chairman
